COVID-19 ACT

Here, you can discover all you need to know about the Coronavirus legislation, passed into law on March 25th.

It covers the purpose, main objectives and provisions of the Bill, outlined in an easy-to-read guide.

You can find out all you need to know about the new Bill, plus you will receive push notifications from us updating you on new announcements.

Cash Grants

We also outline the business grants made available by the Government – and how much is available for different sized businesses – saving you time and various questions you'll no doubt have.

As new grants are announced or further information is released by the Government, those details will be available here straight away, so you will have access to the key information you need.

Employee

The Employee section covers areas announced by the Government where changes have come into effect to help employees through Covid-19. This is your go-to-place for information on the Job Retention Scheme as well as Statutory Sick Pay, and key essentials to help in your business.

Government Updates

We're also populating continuous summaries of the Government daily briefings.

You can get up-to-speed each evening on an outline of the topics, key quotes from Government officials and all you need to know; each day and fully updated.

Loan Scheme

With everything covered on the Coronavirus Business Interruption Loan scheme (CBILS); how it works, government guarantee, benefit for small businesses and support for larger firms, you should find the answers to key questions from the last few weeks.

We'll also be updating this continuously as any further clarifications are made by the Government and new updates are released for the scheme, so you will always have access to the very latest information.

Wellbeing

Aside from finances, one of the biggest strains on society right now, is mental health.

To help with this, we've curated leading content, meditation, mental fitness and other great tools and advice – all available to help you and your family.

Self-employed

The Self-employed section will provide you with a detailed outline of the Self-employed support package; the support, eligibility and applying, plus, other government help on hand for those not covered by the scheme.

We are continually updating this each week as new information is released for the self-employed sector; therefore, you will have access to further information and key resource over time.

Useful Links

We've provided links to key sites and resource areas on government guidance, response, support, Bank of England measures, business impacts and more!

This section provides you with a useful resource centre where you can access a range of help all in one place, with further resources continuously added by us to make this the go-to-place for key information!
